NAME	BIO	LAST SEEN WEARING
JORDAN BERKOWITZ Maximum Security Unit Patient	Jordan Berkowitz is a new patient to the Bloodstone Sanitarium and is the most feared by the staff. Jordan has many imaginary enemies and assumes most food contains poison. While in college, Jordan believed the professors were aliens on a mission to destroy humans. Jordan eventually crossed the line by engaging in a maniacal rampage through an apartment complex that ended with a tense hostage situation.	Hospital gown, tattered medical scrubs, or (untied) strait jacket. Gothic hair (wig, if possible) in disarray and black lipstick if female.
LANE LECTOR Maximum Security Unit Patient	Lane Lector is a longtime resident of the Bloodstone Sanitarium but was recently transferred to maximum security for murdering another patient and injuring a security guard. Lane has delusions of grandeur and believes s/he's a pop star being held against his/her will in the facility by an archenemy pop star's entourage. Lane has unpredictable incidences of rage and is a frequent resident of the padded isolation room.	Hospital gown. Trendy hairstyle in disarray with slight dark circles under your eyes (use blue/burgundy/black eye shadow). If you can make your hospital attire look like you are a pop star – do it.
DR. JESSE CROW Forensic Psychiatrist	Dr. Jesse Crow is a famous forensic psychiatrist. Jesse is the interface between the justice system and the asylum and provides professional opinions on the competency of defendants to stand trial in a court of law. Dr. Crow is an expert witness, whose testimony leads to verdicts of not guilty by reason of insanity, thereby handing one-way tickets to the sanitarium. Dr. Crow doesn't tolerate disrespect and is quick to order patients to lengthy stays of isolation.	Medical lab coat, and optional to have a stethoscope as a prop. Optional to have fake pills (jelly beans) as props.
AVERY DANIS Unit Security Guard	Avery Danis is the reserved maximum security guard at Bloodstone Sanitarium. Avery has recently been promoted to the position of the head guard, but rumor has it that Avery's seeking employment elsewhere. The executive director of the asylum has had a difficult time retaining guards with the primary reason that this unit houses the most terrifying people known to humankind.	Security guard costume. Badge, baton and CB radio as optional props.

HARLEY BIANCHI Maximum Security Unit Patient	Harley Bianchi is the resident sociopath. Harley can be quite charming and proper on the surface but what lurks underneath Harley's cool exterior is a fiery pit of malice. Harley will get what s/he wants - at all costs. This patient landed in the sanitarium soon after the national news story broke of him/her sneaking rat organs into the food at a fast food chain that s/he managed for over a decade.	Hospital gown, tattered medical scrubs, or (untied) strait jacket. Long hair in disarray. Pet (toy) rat as an optional prop.
ASHLEY FRANK Clinical Psychologist	Ashley Frank is the overbearing clinical psychologist at the Bloodstone Sanitarium. Ashley speaks loudly and frequently sneaks behind others to spook them. Ashley's rude behavior sparks episodes of rage in unstable patients, making more work for the psychiatric techs and guards. Ashley admits to causing chaos out of boredom. This is one unprofessional psychologist, but connections mean everything, as s/he's the cousin of the executive director.	Medical lab coat, optional to have a stethoscope as a prop. Optional to have a toy syringe as a prop.
MARLEY MANSON Maximum Security Unit Patient	Marley Manson is a former fashion model. Marley went crazy following a painful dental visit and was later diagnosed as having post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). This patient is unpredictable, randomly screaming and hurling objects across the room. Marley accidentally murdered her/his significant other during a petty argument and earned a spot as a permanent resident of Bloodstone Sanitarium.	Hospital gown, tattered medical scrubs, or (untied) strait jacket. Blonde hair in disarray. If played by a female – heavy makeup.
LOGAN DAHMER Maximum Security Unit Patient	Logan Dahmer has been a resident of Bloodstone Sanitarium since the tender age of eighteen after transferring from a juvenile facility. Logan is a psychopath with homicidal tendencies and should not be trusted. Therefore, never turn your back to Logan. It is wise to stay off this patient's radar, as Logan makes voodoo dolls and chants hexes towards foes.	Hospital gown, tattered medical scrubs, or (untied) strait jacket. Hair in disarray (wig of dreadlocks if possible). Thick, gothic makeup (male or female). Optional to have a pretend voodoo doll as a prop.
KENNEDY BUNDY Maximum Security Unit Patient	Kennedy Bundy has been a patient at Bloodstone Sanitarium a few times as an adult. Kennedy is cunning and knows how to fool the medical staff into believing s/he's free of mental illness, but once released into society, proves otherwise. The last time that Kennedy was released from the asylum, s/he murdered three childhood friends. Kennedy won't be leaving Bloodstone Sanitarium anytime soon.	Hospital gown, tattered medical scrubs, or (untied) strait jacket. Hair in disarray and dirt smudges on your face (use brown / black eye shadow).
