INVITED GUESTS

BELLA STARRY

Waitress at the Gravestone Saloon

A recent widow, Bella Starry grew up on a Pug Valley farm in West Virginia. She was a member of the infamous Hatplain family who was in a deadly feud over property lines with their Kentucky neighbors, the McToys. On one hand, Bella is an educated lady and an accomplished piano player. On the other hand, she's a notorious outlaw who has served time in federal prison for horse thievery and stagecoach robberies. After doing her time, Bella married a Native American man and lived with their tribe in Oklahoma. However, she was widowed soon afterward. She moved to Gravestone six months ago to get a fresh start.

WYLIE ARP

Co-Owner of the Gravestone Saloon

An ex-lawman from Duck City, Wylie Arp recently moved to Gravestone with his brothers and long-time flame, Josephine Marco. Wylie is a Civil War veteran who desperately needs a change of pace and more relaxing way of life. He recently gave up his twenty-year career as sheriff of Duck County to become the co-owner of the Gravestone Saloon. Wylie has made it clear that he doesn't intend on being a lawman again.

JOSEPHINE MARCO

California Gold Rush Entrepreneur & Girlfriend of Wylie Arp

Josephine Marco made a fortune as an entrepreneur in the California Gold Rush when she was only fifteen. She later traveled in her stagecoach through the Wild West in search of the next booming town. She eventually met her true love, Wylie Arp. Ever since these two met, they've been inseparable. She's the main reason Wylie left his career as the Duck City Sheriff. They moved to Gravestone to settle down, get married, and raise a family.

ABBY OAKLEY

Exhibition Sharpshooter

Abby Oakley is a feisty exhibition sharpshooter in Bronco Bill's Traveling Wild Western Show. Known by the fans of her show as Abby Sure Shot, she is rumored to be able to shoot the ashes off a cigar from across the room! However, Abby has recently become quite intolerable with her egocentricities.

DOC GALADAY

Doctor & Co-Owner of the Gravestone Saloon

Doc Galaday is Wylie Arp's right-hand man. Doc rides the fence on both sides of the law. His reputation has made him a terror in the hearts of the lawless. Doc is a physician by trade, but his tuberculosis has drastically reduced his number of patients. He often supplements his income with gambling.

KATIE FISHMAN

Waitress at the Gravestone Saloon

Katie Fishman helped put the wild in the phrase the Wild West! As Doc Galaday's longtime girlfriend, she's also struggled to stay on the right side of the law. Doc's solid friendship with the ex-lawman Wylie Arp has proven to be a positive force with this pair. However, Katie has a rather shady past. She was originally from Gravestone and used to date Wavy Will Bronchus when she was a teenager. After breaking up with him, she moved in with her aunt and uncle in Duck City. That's when she met Doc Galaday. She refuses to talk about her former flame with her boyfriend and is worried about what Doc will do when he finds out the truth!

WAVY WILL BRONCHUS

Leader of The Ranchers

Wavy Will Bronchus is the leader of the loosely organized criminal faction called The Ranchers. A sorted group of cattle rustlers, thieves, and even murderers, this group has invaded the now lawless town of Gravestone. The townsfolk have high hopes that Wylie Arp can reinstate law and order on the streets, but Wavy Will has vowed never to let that happen.

JAMES JESSE

American Outlaw

The poetic James Jesse has always veered on the wrong side of the law since he could walk! He's a member of the Jesse-Young gang made up of a band of brothers. During the Civil War, he engaged in guerilla warfare. Today, there's a huge reward out for his capture by the U.S. government for his many crimes of bank robbing, horse thievery, and even murder.

CALAMITY JANIE

U.S. Army Scout

The tall-tale telling Calamity Janie is a force to be reckoned with! Former Great Plains cattle herder turned U.S. Scout; this rugged lady used to be a trick shooter in Bronco Bill's traveling Wild Western Show. This is a gal you should never double cross, as she's not called Calamity Janie for nothing.

BRONCO BILL

Traveling Entertainer

Bronco Bill always had a knack for the arts. He's a cool, self-contained individual with a great sense of humor. He's assembled a nomadic brigade of entertainers called Bronco Bill's Traveling Wild Western Show. His troupe travels around the U.S. to perform their eclectic show of bronco riding, roping, trick shooting, and even Civil War reenactments.
