LIST OF EMPLOYEES REQUIRED TO ATTEND THE DEBUT PARTY
THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

STARR DANGERFIELD

Wax Museum Curator

Starr Dangerfield is the curator at the Greatest Show Wax Museum – a sideshow exhibit next to the Big Top. Starr creates and maintains lifelike figures of movie stars, politicians, and other celebrities.

Starr offers VIP tours of the museum's workshop to show the process of the creation of the wax tributes. Starr lurks in the shadows of the fairgrounds to watch customers walk by on occasion. Some believe Starr is searching for the right person – but for what reason?

FLOSSY G.

Acrobat

Flossy G. is an acrobat who doubles as a ride jock on the Vortex Gravitron roller coaster – a ride which is advertised as causing less than forty injuries to riders per year. Flossy G. has been known to fight with customers of the funfair and follow them into the parking lot. Under the Big Top, Flossy G. radiates balance, agility, and strength on the trapeze, silks, and aerial hoops. An adrenaline junky, Flossy G. loves the combination of soaring heights and danger.

MAX A. MILLION

Ringmaster

Max A. Million is a peculiar master of ceremonies who rescues people from dangerous circumstances in their lives and recruits them to become part of the big family of The Greatest Show on Earth – a traveling circus and funfair. A former lounge singer turned failed variety show host, Max is a true performer at heart – a show person who will do anything to fill the stands under the Big Top.

SKYWHEEL DANNY

Clown

Skywheel Danny is a circus clown who performs as the human cannonball and manages the bounce house on the midway between show times at the Big Top. Danny often straggles behind the daily parade and glares at the onlookers to frighten them. Skywheel has been accused of terrorizing locals by throwing candies at their windows in the middle of the night until they peer out the window and see Skywheel smile at them. To date, Skywheel Danny hasn't harmed anyone or even been charged with trespassing.

SNAKE SOLEI

Contortionist

Snake Solei was hiding out in a filthy gas station restroom when Max's funfair traveled through town. Max made a secret deal with Snake to perform under the Big Top in exchange for protection from the feds. Snake is a contortionist who is wanted for attempted murder in another state, having allegedly stabbed someone after a road rage incident. Because Max believes idle time affords trouble, outside of the Big Top show times, Snake manages the funnel cake booth on the midway. Snake is somewhat easy to get along with but can be highly unpredictable.

ROCKIN BOBBY

Daredevil

Rockin Bobby is the daredevil of the Big Top show and sideshows. Willing to accept risks for cheap thrills, Rockin Bobby exudes recklessness and a lack of good sense. From a life of jumping out of planes and pushing the limits of free-falls to diving too deep without SCUBA gear, Rockin Bobby has found a relatively safe home at The Greatest Show on Earth. Bobby leads the daily parades and runs the balloon dart game on the midway. Bobby participates in the Big Top show with a high wire feat, a knife-throwing act, a motorbike car jump, and a hook suspension performance.

GILLIE SNOWBRIDGE

Gypsy

Gillie Snowbridge is the mysterious fortune teller who works in the Hall of Mirrors - a sideshow attraction at the funfair. Gillie is posted at the end of the mirror maze with a six-foot mirror called The Mirror of Behāwian and claims it will reveal the innermost appearance and desires of the onlooker. A giver of nightmares, Gillie Snowbridge lacks a conscience when it comes to delivering dreadful fortunes. Don't ask Gillie anything you don't wish to know!

VALERIO GRIFFON

Strong Man

Valerio Griffon is potentially the strongest man on Earth. Desperate for work, Valerio confessed to Max that he was on the run from the law due to his involvement in a series of unfortunate events, including the murder of a man who challenged his strength on the street. Valerio has a criminal history and has been in trouble since he was a child pickpocket. Some say Valerio's strength and poor choices are not due to environment or genetics. There is a word on the street that Valerio may have been part of a human research trial that went wrong.

RAIN TEMPEST

Escape Artist

Rain Tempest is an escape artist who has been thrilling audiences for decades after getting an early start with card tricks as a child on the streets. Max A. Million was lucky to convince Rain to join the funfair, as Rain is internationally famous due to a live television special in the '90s that featured Rain being shackled in a steel cage filled with ice water and escaping in record time. Rain is obsessed with perfecting new illusions and becomes enraged when anyone stands between Rain and work. This illusionist isn't happy about having to skip a rehearsal to attend Max's party under the Big Top.

MADAM VIVIAN LORE

Bearded Beauty

Madam Vivian Lore is touted as the most beautiful bearded lady in the world. However, rumor has it that her lustrous beard is a fake! Madam Lore was Max's first recruit to The Greatest Show on Earth and will not hear of anyone accusing her of not having real facial hair. Madam Lore manages the games of chance and skill off the midway.

BAT VON TATS

Painted Person

Bat Von Tats manages the Hair Braids & Henna Tattoo stand at the entrance of the fairground. Tattooed from head to toe, Bat draws curious gazes from the customers. Bat's first tattoo was at age eighteen, and ever since, Bat has spent over 1,000 hours in the tattoo chair having every visible inch of skin tattooed including eyelids, between the toes, gums and even the white of an eyeball. Bat is a super friendly person, but the amount of ink in Bat's skin is the only focus onlookers seem to have.

LOLO PANOR

Flea Circus Manager

The Flea Circus is a sideshow attraction in which fleas perform feats within tiny exhibits. Since The Greatest Show on Earth came together, Lolo has been under attack from various animal rights groups for using harnesses around fleas to force them to perform tricks for an audience. However, undercover investigators disguised as carnival workers have revealed that Lolo's fleas are not real insects but rather mechanical devices operated by electricity and magnets. Lolo firmly denies these allegations and contends that the fleas are real animals that are trained and not on harnesses. Lolo also claims the insects are taken care of well within federal animal housing standards.
